PRIVATE GUIDED TRAVEL WORLDWIDE

Kensington Tours Launches New Portfolio of Customizable Themed Tours to Israel Culinary Encounters, Wine Tours, Active Adventures & Spiritual Pilgrimages

Wilmington DE, June, 2, 2011 – With a record 3.45 million visitors to Israel in 2010 and numbers predicted to rise, Kensington Tours is pleased to introduce a diverse new collection of customizable and themed tours throughout the Holy Land, all with the luxury of private guide.

From new takes on spiritual pilgrimages, mouthwatering culinary encounters and heritage sojourns to active outdoor adventures, Kensington has a passport to Israel for every type of traveler. Complete with Destination Expert to personalize the journey to suit your style and schedule, your tour is destined to be a worry-free, once-in-a-life-time experience that goes far beyond a vacation.

“Like any of Kensington’s customized itineraries, your tour focuses on the highlights that are most important to you and your private guide gives you the freedom to make most of your time in Israel,” says Kensington CEO Jeff Willner.

Ideal for couples, families or groups of any size, every tour is custom tailored and includes expert private guide, driver and hotels. Travelers take in legendary destinations like Jerusalem, the Dead Sea, Galilee, Tel Aviv, Ellah Valley, Tiberias, Nazareth and Haifa and more. New tours include:

Israel by Kibbutz

Delve into this soul moving country while staying at a collection of traditional Israeli kibbutz. Partake in the communal lifestyle of the Kibbutznik people firsthand as you tour this holy land. A transformative travel experience.
