Kensington Tour's Unveils Customizable Private Guided Tours to Sri Lanka

Jungle Safaris, Culinary Tours, UNESCO Sites, Spiritual Pilgrimages, Exotic Animals, Beaches & More

Wilmington DE, October 16, 2012 – Kensington Tours (www.kensingtontours.com) is pleased to present the most recent addition to their portfolio; customizable private guided journeys to the land Marco Polo christened “the most beautiful island in the world,” Sri Lanka. Tour locations include Colombo Negombo, Sigiriya, Kandy, Nuwara Eliya, Mirissa, Anuradhapura, Induruwa and more. A collection of 3+ to 5-star properties are offered in throughout the country, each handpicked by Kensington’s experienced India Destination Specialists.

This collection of customizable experiences includes something for every type of traveler whether they are an active adventurer, culinary (or curry) enthusiast, in search of spiritual enlightenment, history junkie or just after some time at the beach. Highlights of Kensington’s offerings include: jungle safaris in search of leopards, interactive elephant sanctuaries, UNESCO World Heritage sites, divine encounters, Buddhist blessings, world-class beaches, white-water rafting, biking, crafts workshops, turtle hatcheries, scuba diving, aromatic cooking classes, lush tea plantations and much more.

“The once inaccessible, ‘Tear Drop of India’ is now only starting to emerge on many travelers’ bucket list,” says Sarah Ferguson, Kensington’s Asia Director. “Perfect for thrill seekers and those who have seen India and South East Asia but are hungry for more, Sri Lanka simply cannot be missed.”

These new Sri Lanka tours are customized to suit the individual style, schedule and budget of each traveler complete with expert private local guide, driver, hand selected properties, internal flights and around the clock support.
