PRIVATE GUIDED TRAVEL WORLDWIDE

GET UP CLOSE & PERSONAL WITH THE PLANET'S MOST EXOTIC ANIMALS WITH RENOWNED PHOTOGRAPHER AMOS NACHOUM & KENSINGTON TOURS

Kensington Launches Exclusive Wildlife Photography Adventures Led By Amos Nachoum

WILMINGTON, DE (July 28, 2011) Adventurers, photography enthusiasts and animal lovers can now learn the secrets to capturing the planet's rarest creatures through the lens of their cameras with a new series of expeditions from Kensington Tours and world famous photographer and documentary filmmaker Amos Nachoum. From the rare snow leopard of the Himalayan Mountains to the polar bear cubs of the High Arctic to great white sharks off the coast of Mexico and South Africa's phenomenal sardine run, these expeditions are an adventurer's dream come true.

Each trip is intimate and exclusive, made up of a small group of only four to ten individuals and features Kensington's award-winning quality and service. Taken under the wing of Amos, travelers will go where few have gone before and learn not only the secrets of the animal kingdom but how to capture these moments on film forever. "These experiences are among the rarest and most astounding on earth," says Brad Crockett, Kensington Tours. "And to experience them under the guidance of Amos with his incredible talent for photography, his wildlife knowledge and his contagious zest for life is truly a once in a lifetime opportunity."

Kensington Tours/Amos Nachoum series includes:

Great White Sharks, Baja Mexico

9 Days from $7,209 per person

Behold the Great White Shark's annual feeding frenzy on elephant seals and tuna with this adventurous expedition cruise. Spend five days at sea with Amos scuba diving and photographing these often misunderstood beings. A submersible cage allows you the chance to encounter these prehistoric predators, while the daring can venture out of the cage after thorough preparation and under close supervision.

Sardine Run off the Coast of South Africa

11 Days from $7,959 per person

Go beyond the norm and behold what many consider one of the greatest spectacles on earth, South

Africa's Sardine Run Migration – a literal kaleidoscope of marine creatures. Led by Amos Nachoum, join a mosaic of the ocean's predators, from Orca and Bryde's whales to Bottlenose dolphins, seals and penguins with this thrilling photography adventure.

Humpback Whales in Tonga, The South Pacific

14 Days from $9,988 per person

Meet the gentle giants of the Kingdom of Tonga, the regal Humpback Whale. These majestic marine creatures migrate to the warm waters of Tonga to breed, give birth and care for their newborns. In the good company of Amos, learn the secrets to marine photography, snorkel or free dive amongst the whales, watch the bulls take to the air and listen to the otherworldly whale song of these kings of the deep.

Polar Bears in the Canadian High Arctic

17 Days from $23,800 per person

So awe-inspiring that it's almost magical, watch as the "Kings of the Arctic" emerge from months of hibernation and capture on film as their cubs take their first steps into the sun with this off-the-beaten-path tour to the wilds of the Canadian Arctic. Smile as you see the cubs test their limbs and tumble and play on the snow and ice. Follow the family to the floe edge where the mother waits patiently for seals to come up for air.

Snow Leopards in Leh, India

14 Days from $21,000 per person

Voyage to the tranquil wilds of the Himalayas in pursuit of the "ghost of the mountains," the elusive Snow Leopard. Watch the world fall away as Amos takes you 15,000 feet up into the roof of Asia. An outdoor adventure, this exclusive hike is not for the weak of heart as you'll be physically challenged, hiking for up to five hours a day and sleeping in an expedition tent.

About Amos Nachoum

Amos Nachoum is a photographer and explorer. He has shot just about everything there is to shoot, but what he loves most is wildlife photography. Especially if it’s in the water. And he has become world-famous at it. So much so, in fact, that he has been asked to lead National Geographic expedition teams with Dr. Eugenie Clark, Dr. Sylvia Earle, and astronaut Buzz Aldrin. He has co-produced documentaries with Stan Waterman, and he was the team leader for National Geographic’s Red Sea, Great White Shark, and Killer Whale photo expeditions.
