KENSINGTON TOURS OFFERS COLLECTION OF LONDON DIAMOND JUBILEE CELEBRATION TOURS

Join History in the Making this June at the Festivities Honouring Queen Elizabeth's 60 Year Reign

WILMINGTON, DE (Feb. 16, 2012) With Will, Kate, royalty, celebrities and government officials from around the globe flocking to London this spring for Queen Elizabeth's Diamond Jubilee, those of us not on the royal guest list are also eager to partake in the June 2-5 celebrations. That's why Kensington Tours has designed a collection of customizable Diamond Jubilee experiences – all with private guide to make it simple to be a part of the pomp and circumstance of this momentous occasion.

So grab your Union Jack and be a part of history in the making. From time-honoured British traditions like the Thames Boat Pageant, Beacon Lighting Ceremony and Royal Carriage Procession, to modern festivities such as the BBC concert at Buckingham Palace starring Paul McCartney, Andy Warhol's tribute at the National Portrait Gallery's The Queen: Art & Image, the fun filled Big Lunch and fireworks fit for royalty, London will be packed with regal adventures. Long live the Queen!
