Kensington Tours Introduces New Private Charter Yacht Collection

Greece, Croatia, Hawaii, Bora Bora, Sri Lanka, Antarctica & more.

Wilmington, DE, November 13, 2012 – Kensington Tours is pleased to announce the latest addition to their award-winning global portfolio, customizable Private Chartered Yachts. Ideal for memorable family getaways, gatherings of friends or those who have a connoisseur's taste for the finer things in life, these personalized private yacht experiences take cruising to a new level. This fleet of hand selected fully crewed ships spans the globe from Hawaii, Sri Lanka, French Polynesia and the Greek Isles to Croatia, Galapagos, Antarctica and much more.

"Private yachts are a smart and more personal way to cruise. They allow travelers the intimacy of their own companions together with the thrill being on the move but without the long drives, flights and changing hotels each day. Additionally, yachts go where bigger cruise ships cannot, showcasing sites that otherwise remained unseen," explains Kensington's cruise Director Dana Toma. "With private yachts, passengers can drop anchor at their own pace and be the captain of their own adventure."

The flexibility of traveling by private yachts presents an entirely unique way to travel, allowing for opportunity-based activities, exclusive adventures, orchestrated indulgences and simply whatever one would like to do along the way. Most Kensington yachting itineraries feature private chefs, crews, gear for snorkeling, scuba diving and fishing, luxurious pre/post cruise hotels, private guided shore excursions, chauffeured transfers and more.
