Discover The Eighth Continent: Kensington Tours Launches Private Guided Tours To Madagascar

From Leaping Lemurs, Baobab Alleys, Lunar Deserts, Stone Forests and Beyond Perfect Beaches

Wilmington DE, August 29, 2012 –Bizarrely beautiful and otherworldly, Kensington Tours (www.kensingtontours.com) is pleased to present the most recent addition to their award-winning Africa portfolio -- private guided safaris and tours of the eco-rich isle of Madagascar. So unique that ecologists refer to it as the 8th continent, this isolated wonderland's playful lemurs, phenomenal beaches, baobab trees and outlandish creatures are quietly climbing their way to the top of every globetrotter's hit list.

Truly a world unto itself, the country rests off of the tip of Africa and is home to rare flora and fauna found nowhere else on earth. A step beyond the quintessential Big 5 of the African safari – here, the stars of the show are the 70 different species of odd looking lemurs, color-changing chameleons, alleys of towering baobab trees, waterfalls, lunar landscapes, tranquil rivers, beach ringed isles, tropical jungles, carnivorous plants and hundreds of rare birds.

“Madagascar promises to deliver that once-in-a-lifetime adventure that travel aficionados seek. The country is only now really beginning to embrace tourism after years of being off the map so even the most intrepid explorers haven't visited yet,” says Gabrielle Nijdam, Kensington's Africa Director. “Madagascar is the perfect addition to any Africa safari or makes for a show-stopping standalone adventure.”

Like any of Kensington's itineraries, every tour is customized to suit a traveller's style, schedule and budget and features expert private local guide, driver, hand selected properties, internal flights and more.
